

BRIDGE Program 2025

Building Relationships, Inspiring Development, Gaining Expertise

Want to apply your academic studies to real-world problems?

Interested in the economic consulting industry?

Apply to participate in our BRIDGE Program by February 7, 2025.

Cornerstone Research offers sophomores (2027) at select HBCUs the chance to discover the economic consulting industry: how it works, why it's exciting, and what skills are helpful to those who choose it as a career path.

During the program, you'll take a deep dive into the economic consulting industry and the work we do at Cornerstone Research. You'll complete a project, based on types of cases our firm works on, and learn how you can apply your academic studies to real-world problems. Along the way, you'll get to know our people, as well as potential career opportunities at our firm.

How do I know the BRIDGE program is for me?

We encourage you to apply if any of these qualities describe you:

- Currently attend Clark Atlanta University, Howard University, Morehouse College, Morgan State University, or Spelman College
- Analytical and intellectually curious
- Ready to learn new skills
- Drawn to economics and finance
- Interested in a consulting career

When and where does it take place?

- March 13–14, 2025
- Our Washington, DC office

Ready to apply? Here's how.

Visit our application page for full details. Please submit your resume, college transcript, and a cover letter that demonstrates your interest in the program by February 7, 2025.

Cornerstone Research thrives thanks to a diverse and inclusive team of professionals from over fifty nations. Learn more about our commitment to Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion.
